

CONSTRUCTION GUIDELINE: HARD-SOLED SHOES

Due to OSHA safety requirements, all Habitat for Humanity volunteers must wear hard-soled, slip-resistant shoes to the construction site. Work boots or hiking shoes are preferred. No tennis shoes or sneakers are allowed on site. Please see the examples below for reference. Thank you for your cooperation!

