

INTERNATIONAL COASTAL CLEANUP

Saturday, September 17, 2016
LaCosta Urban Wetlands ★ 9 – 11 a.m.

The change starts with you!

Volunteers are needed to remove litter and debris from the shoreline of LaCosta Urban Wetlands. Orlando lakes eventually drain into the Atlantic Ocean or Florida Bay. This regional volunteer effort is part of the coordinated by The Ocean Conservancy and supported locally by City of Orlando and Keep Orlando Beautiful. Volunteer groups from across the globe participate on this special day!

31st Annual International Coastal Cleanup

Snacks and supplies will be provided. Dress for a mess!

All ages welcome.

Any participants under 18 must have a parent or guardian complete the City of Orlando's Minor Release Form. This should be turned in the day of the event at sign in. Please request a form when RSVPing. No one under 14 may participate without adult supervision.

Your RSVP is required for this event by contacting lisa.rain@cityoforlando.net or calling 407.246.2257 with the name, number, and email of volunteers in your group. Volunteer spots are limited.
