

Interviewee's Info

What to say: Hi, I'm working with the Redmond Teen Center, they have asked us to interview a person who is 65 or older. Would you be comfortable with me interviewing you and sharing my interview with the Teen Center?

- Interviewee's Name:
- Interviewee's Email or Phone #: (Please ask them which they prefer as the Teen Center might contact them for verification.)
- Interviewee's Age: (Only if they feel comfortable sharing. Family probably won't mind sharing their age, but neighbors might not be comfortable sharing and you can just skip the question.)

QUESTIONS:

1. Were you named after a family member or does your name have a special meaning?
2. What is the most important lesson that your parents taught you?
3. What were your grandparents like?
4. What kind of school did you go to? Were you a good student? What was your favorite subject? Least favorite?
5. Where did you grow up?
6. Can you describe the neighborhood you grew up in?
7. Which invention from your lifetime are you most amazed by?
8. What kinds of things make you the happiest now?
9. When did you learn how to drive? Who taught you? What was your first car?
10. What advice would you give to your teenage self?
11. Who has made the biggest impact on your life and why?
12. What is one of your biggest accomplishments in your life?
13. What's one of the hardest things you've had to overcome?
14. What major historic event do remember the most and why?
15. Where have you traveled? What is your favorite city to visit? Do you have a favorite family vacation memory?
16. If you could visit any place you've already traveled again, where would it be? Why?
17. How many jobs have you had? Which was your favorite and why?
18. What was your favorite television show as a child? What is your favorite shows now?
19. Make up your own question: Please include our question in the answer below.
20. Thank you so much for taking the time to answer my questions! I will be sharing them with the Teen Center, and they might contact you about our interview. Are you okay with them contacting you? *