

Alpha Kappa Alpha
SORORITY, INCORPORATED

December 17, 2018

Dear Sorors:

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority has partnered with the Interdenominational Ministers Fellowship (IMF) and Tennessee State University (TSU) to host several activities in honor of the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

day of service. I am serving as a special participant. Several other community and social organizations have been invited to participate including other members of the Divine Nine and the Nashville Chapter of the NAACP.

The events of Monday, January 21, 2019 will begin with a rally at Jefferson Street Baptist Church at 8:30 a.m. followed by a march which will begin at 10:00 a.m. The march will culminate at the Howard Gentry Center on the campus of TSU for a Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Program which is scheduled to begin at 11:00 a.m. Civil rights icon, Rev. William Barber II, has consented to be the keynote speaker. We anticipate over 2,000 guests to be in attendance. Following the program, you are invited to join a private luncheon with Rev. Barber along with political leaders and select community members.

I am aware that several chapters have already made plans for MLK Day activities. Please do not cancel your plans. However, if your chapter does not have confirmed plans, I would be honored if you joined me in Nashville for this special celebration. I would love to see you at the march and the program.

I extend my best wishes to you and your family during this holiday season.

Yours in Alpha Kappa Alpha Excellence,

Soror Glenda Glover
Supreme Basileus

Please do not reply to the eBlasts@aka1908.com email address. For any questions/concerns, visit our Member Assistance Form.