They will need help checking in to the appointment. I don't think the appointment will take very long, but you are welcome to leave until they are done. They will need a ride home and need a van because his wheelchair can fit in the trunk. You will need to help the mom put the wheelchair in the trunk, but the mother will put Alireza into the car on her own.

If you are willing, the son goes to school at International Newcomer Academy. Since the appointment is early, he will have enough time to still go to school. If you want to drop Alireza off at school before you drop his mother off at home, I'm sure he would appreciate that. You are not required to do this though.
