Student Volunteers

Students may complete community service or service-learning hours at Poverello House. Students involved in social work, psychology, and recreational therapy courses must attend an orientation individually. Volunteer hours will be tracked, and timesheets will be available upon request. Please bring any service-learning forms that need to be signed and completed to orientation.

Court-Ordered Community Service

Court-Ordered service is for individuals needing to complete community service hours in place of a fine for probation purposes, etc. You must be referred to Poverello House from HandsOn. Please call them before signing up for orientation. Walk-ins are not accepted.
