VOLUNTEERING WITH VBWFF:

VBWFF relies on the generosity and dedication of hundreds of volunteers. We seek volunteers who share a commitment to and passion for supporting independent film and the artists who make the movies. The VBWFF Volunteer Corps are the amazing force behind producing a successful festival each and every year!

VBWFF COMMITTEE CAPTAINS

Partnership Captain(s) create partnerships and win-wins. They are business-development savvy, outgoing people with community connections. They know how to sell potential sponsors on the VBWFF opportunity for business promotion. They view sales as partnerships, created to benefit the sponsor, the event, and ultimately the cause, and enjoy connecting these components together.

Vintner Captain(s) communicates any brand preferences to Director of Partner Relations, coordinates partnership with a wine shop to promote event, sell passes and take orders at event at the Downtown Heritage Center, our Winery Tasting Room. They work as a team with the Director of Partner Relations. They communicate winery staffing and setup needs to the Venue Captain, ensure all wine deliveries happen smoothly, greet wineries when they arrive and help tend to their needs. If you're having Vintner Dinners, this job also organizes vintner concierges and wine delivery. This person knows the difference between a Chardonnay and a Sauvignon Blanc and is a detail-oriented person.

NEXT UP! Young Filmmakers Competition Captain creates a marketing strategy for the educational community, manages printed and digital outreach materials for competition. Makes sure the word gets out to all young school age children about the competition. And helps solicit filmmaker prizes for winners. Makes follow up calls to school boards and PTAs. Makes sure everyone has the information they need to enter competition.

Screening Venue/Logistics Captain(s) manages the decor, as well as logistical nuts and bolts of the event venues. There will be at least one Captain responsible for each venue and having each event or screening staffed by volunteers. Captains work with Technical Director to make sure screenings logistics are done. Captains will have scripts for introductions at each venue and a list of special guests, i.e., Filmmakers, local dignitaries etc.

Basically the Venue/Logistics Captain(s) are responsible for all event day minutiae. They put out fires on event day. Ideal candidates possess a sense of style and organization skills and stay cool under pressure. They recruit assistants, including a decor coordinator with fabulous ideas for unique, eye-catching visuals.

Travel & Accommodations Captain(s) assist our Festival Concierge with the logistics for filmmaker, winemaker and other special guest attending the Festival. They make sure each of our invited guests have a place to lay their head during the festival. They solicit home stays and hotel accommodations and make sure their ground travel is arranged for them to appear at screenings, panels and parties.

Swag Bag Captain(s) solicit donations for guests' gift bags (swag bags). Gifts may be from sponsors, event participants, or local businesses. They manage the collection of donations, bag assembly, timely delivery to the event, and delivery at the event.

VOLUNTEER POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Get Your Schedule:

Shift Choice Volunteer: Will log onto www.trackitforward.com and sign up for Shifts on their assigned team: minimum of 12 total hours required.

Training:

Volunteers are required to attend team trainings prior to the festival. If you are unable to attend your scheduled training, please contact the Volunteer Director so your training can be rescheduled. Please remember there are very few training classes in total, so it is critical that you attend in order to be completely prepared for the festival and your duties.

Volunteer Check-In, Credentials:

All Volunteers are encouraged to do their official festival “check-in” at the designated VBWFF location which opens prior to the festival. At “check-in”, volunteers receive their Festival Credential and T-Shirt and film vouchers and are ready to go. For any one whom is unable to “check-in” in advance, you can “check-in” at the Volunteer Check-in station the day of your shift. The final cut-off for “check-in” is one hour before volunteering for your first shift.

* Please do not show up to your shift without having checked in* Attendance and Absenteeism:

If you volunteer, we depend on you to complete your scheduled shifts. We do understand that from time to time certain situations may arise that prevent you from doing so. Please alert the Volunteer Director of any situations that arise and/or if you are not able to keep your commitment as a volunteer, as far in advance as possible, but no later than your cancellation date on your volunteer agreement so that an appropriate substitute may be found. In the event of an illness or emergency, please alert the Volunteer Director as soon as possible, preferably before your scheduled shift begins. If absenteeism becomes excessive, your volunteer relationship with VBWFF may be jeopardized.

Volunteer Dress Code:

We issue each volunteer a T-shirt and credential, and at the festival we request that you wear the T-Shirt, credential and white or black long pants during your shifts, as this allows you to be recognized as a volunteer. Your attire should always be professional.

Policy Against Harassment:

VBWFF is committed to maintaining a work environment free of unlawful harassment. The VBWFF policy prohibits harassment based on sex, race, color, religion, creed, gender, national origin, age, disability, marital or veteran status, sexual orientation, or any other legally protected status.

Smoking

Smoking is not permitted while a volunteer is actively volunteering. In response to state and local laws and building codes, smoking is not permitted in any of the venues. Please respect the laws and regulations.

Solicitation:

Solicitation for activities, events or anything other than that from the VBWFF organization, is not allowed when volunteering.

Substance Abuse:

The possession, use or sale of illegal drugs is never acceptable in our organization's environment. This can and will compromise your volunteer opportunities and we will not hesitate to call legal authorities.

We do have alcohol being served at many of our venues; volunteers are NOT to engage in consumption while on shift. Volunteers need to remember that they are representing VBWFF. Irresponsible actions occurring off-shift while wearing a volunteer badge are subject to review and may result in termination.

Cell Phone Use:

we understand that you may need to accept or place a call or check emails. We ask that you refrain from doing so while on shift. If you need to do any of these, please keep it brief.

Problem Solving Procedure:

When a group of people work and volunteer together, problems may arise. It is important to all of us that such problems are solved as quickly as possible. Occasionally, however, it may be necessary to investigate certain problems in greater detail. Our problem-solving procedure provides you with the opportunity to have a review of any problem, dispute, or misunderstanding that arise during the course of your volunteering.

If you feel that the issue was not resolved between the affected parties, contact the Volunteer Director, and she will investigate the situation and attempt to resolve the issue as best possible.

You may email the Volunteer Director of Volunteers at volunteers@VBWFF.com, at the end of your shift. Or you may call Rosmery Hernandez, Director of Volunteers at 305-772-1092. If it cannot wait, call the Volunteer Director of Volunteers as soon as possible. We are interested in the solution of any problem you, as a member of the team, may have.

Dismissal:

Dismissal of a volunteer is a serious consideration. Before a volunteer is dismissed, attempts to reconcile the solution will be made with the Volunteer Director. Dismissal of a volunteer may take place if a volunteer is unreliable, irresponsible, disruptive, dishonest, demonstrates inappropriate behavior, or fails to adhere to the policies and procedures of the VBWFF Volunteer Program.

If you are dismissed as a volunteer, you will need to turn in your credential to the Volunteer Director of Volunteers.

Attending a Film or Panel or Wine Tasting as a Volunteer:

At VBWFF, Volunteers are encouraged to attend screenings when they are not “on shift”. You’ve earned it! So please enjoy the festival offerings. And your “insider” comments are welcome!

Thank you for volunteering and we look forward to you being a part of our team in creating the Ultimate Wine + Film event.

Sip! See! Savor the Experience!
