

THE PAGENT by Mateo Messina: A shy 11-year old boy finds a chance to sing in a nationally televised holiday pageant, but he finds he must rise to his full potential & find a way to save the entire show first.

Friday, November 18th - a night of music, fun, comedy, love, and adventure.

Mateo Messina is a local song writer that has written numerous soundtracks for TV and movies. He uses his amazing talent to create a concert for a ONE NIGHT ONLY fundraiser for Children's Hospital Uncompensated Fund and childhood cancer research

WE NEED YOU to volunteer to sell raffle tickets before the show and during intermission. You will get to see the show and receive a free T-shirt. It's a fun night and a great way to support Children's Hospital.

You'll need to be at Benaroya Hall in downtown Seattle by 5pm – no later. You'll get instructions on what to do.

Get your own team together – friends and family are welcome to help.

Please RSVP to do this by NOVEMBER 4th. Cindy Parks parksc1@comcast.net or call or text 425-444-6960.
