"Making Genuine Business Connections"

Guest Speaker: Ann Baron, CEO and Organizer

Enabling businesses to grow and connect is what invigorates Ann every day. She is passionate about small businesses and seeing them thrive.

Ann's background in sales, insurance, teaching and corporate training gives her an excellent foundation in communicating and connecting with people. Over two years ago she founded Northern Colorado Community which is membership based, regional, business networking group. She is happiest connecting businesses and being a resource to professionals.

Enabling businesses to grow and connect is what invigorates Ann every day. She is passionate about small businesses and seeing them thrive. Her other work experience was in the Insurance field for over 20 years. Prior to her career in insurance, Ann was a public school teacher for several years.

Her volunteer activities were TEDxFrontRange, Northern Colorado Nonprofit Resource Center, Northern Colorado Mini Maker Faire, and a Business Consultant with the Small Business Development Center of Larimer County for years.

When she's not connecting businesses, Ann channels some of her creative energy into all types of hand crafts. She enjoys spending time with her husband and their two canine friends.
