

Women Wine & Wellness

Women, Wine & Wellness is a dynamic group of women who love to connect, learn, grow, and be inspired. Our events naturally attract professional women, women who are passionate about health, and women who just want a fun night out to connect with other women of the same interests.

Women, Wine & Wellness (WWW) is a networking event held each month in Vero Beach. Our April meeting is being held at the beautiful retirement community of Regency Park located at 910 Regency Square. Please join us on Thursday, April 20th from 5:30 – 7pm. Appetizers and wine are from 5:30 to 6pm with our program starting promptly at 6pm. Cost per event is $12.

- Learn and be inspired by amazing speakers on various wellness topics
- Make healthier choices and live better based on what you learn
- Find services, products, and organizations to maximize your results
- Meet women just like you in a fun, energizing environment
- Become a member of this amazing community of like-minded women
- Build strong bonds with others through regular event attendance

Please join us for the April Women, Wine & Wellness networking event. This month's topic is the Health Benefits of Wine, presented by wine expert and enthusiast Bob Stanley.

Bob Stanley has taught wine education and appreciation classes and seminars in Vero at Chelsea's and Great Spirits. For 12 years Bob Stanley was the cohost of a TV show featuring wine tasting and education called "Seller to Cellar." In addition, Bob has been an International Wine Judge at competitions here in the U.S and is a wine collector, wine historian, and philanthropist.
