Dear Mindy,

We are proud to announce that our 47th Annual Volunteer Recognition will take place on May 10, 2019 at Little America. This event allows us the opportunity to recognize the countless time and outstanding efforts that our volunteers and mentors have made to the youth in our community during the past year. This will be a first-class event and an excellent opportunity for local businesses to associate themselves with a worthwhile cause.

This event is made possible through the continued support of people/companies such as yourself. With this in mind, we would like to ask for your support in sponsoring this year's event. This year's guest speaker is Brittany Wagner whose biography can be found on the attached sponsor level sheet.

We hope that we can count on your support to make this year's event one of our best!

Your sponsorship donation can be sent to the office. For more information you can contact us at (307)637-6480, and we would be happy to speak with you about how you can help make this year's event a success.

Thank you in advance for your sponsorship! We hope to see you at the 47th Annual Volunteer Recognition.

Sincerely,

Jay B. Sullivan, Director
The Office of Youth Alternatives

47th Annual Volunteer Recognition

Brittany Wagner is a nationally respected athletic academic counselor, life coach and motivational speaker. She garnered world-wide fame in 2016 as the television star of the hit Netflix documentary series, "Last Chance U". Known for giving "troublemakers" their last chance at making it to the next level, Ms. Wagner was the vivacious, mentor and mother-figure to these young men – often times the driving factor behind their future successes. Wagner's stardom has landed her interviews with ABC's Nightline, The Dan Patrick Show, The Kidd Kraddick In the Morning Show, GQ, The New York Times and New York Daily News - to name a few. Her common question, "Do you have a pencil?" has become a phenomena across the world since the show's debut.

Prior to filming the documentary, Brittany spent over 15 years working with college athletes at various levels. During her eight years at East Mississippi Community College in Scooba, Mississippi, she helped over 200 football players make it to the next level. Twelve of whom are currently playing in the NFL - with college degrees.

For the past year, Ms. Wagner has traveled all over the United States as a motivational speaker. In the fall of 2017, she launched her own company, 10 Thousand Pencils. Through 10KP, Brittany is able to work individually with high school and college athletes, administrators, counselors and teachers on academic success strategies and life skills. In February of 2018, she developed her own weekly podcast "Sharpen Up with Brittany Wagner."

Ms. Wagner earned her undergraduate and master's degree from Mississippi State University and currently resides in Birmingham, Alabama. She is the proud mom to one daughter, Kennedy.
